There are two kinds of Afghan refugees in India, namely

(i) Afghan refugees under executive restrictions only,

and

(ii) Afghan refugees detained under Regulation III of 1818.

While there are no Afghan refugees of the first category in Bombay, there are six Koh-i-Daman refugees of the second category still residing in that Presidency as per details below:-

Khan Baba
Muhammad Ibrahim
Muhammad Hassan	Belgaum.
Muhammad Ismail
Taj Muhammad
Ali Ahmad.	Satara.

For the purposes of the annual return in question, the term "Afghan refugees" covers Afghan refugees in either category, and although the Sind Govt. have submitted a separate return for the refugees in their province, the Bombay Govt. are still required to submit a return in respect of the 6 Koh-i-Daman refugees residing in their jurisdiction. We may reply to the Bombay Govt. as in the draf submitted for approval.

Wife, son aged 12, 2 daughters and 5 and a baby (female).	The detenu was seen by the Joint Magistrate,Dindigul in November 1936. His health and conduct are satisfactory. He still expresses a desire to be moved to some place of detention in the plains,and complains of the inadequacy of his allowance,especially as his family is large and increasing. He does not live extravagantly. At the end of Nov.(on 1st Dec.1936)he moved into another house,a short distance from the previous one. It is a suitable house.
3.	Sirdar Abdul Hakim Khan.	Yercaud (Salem Dt.)	Not known (65 years)	Afghan.	Kept under sufficient Police surveillance to ensure against his escape to the frontier. NATIONAL ARCHIVES OF INDIA

Column 11 of the statement.

The Sirdar's own health is satisfactory except that he had an attack of influenza at the end of December 1936, from which he has now recovered.

2. His conduct has not been satisfactory. On the 5th July 1936, the Sirdar left Coonoor without permission and took up his quarters in the Juma mosque at Ootacamund. He refused to return to Coonoor. The Joint Magistrate, Coonoor tried to persuade him to return but in vain. Accordingly the Joint Magistrate had the Sirdar removed to Coonoor by service of a warrant of arrest on the 9th July 1936. The Sirdar's object in coming to Ootacamund was to enlist local sympathy for his alleged grievances. His visit caused little public interest. As a result of this escapade I have been compelled to tighten up the control over him. In spite of orders to the contrary the Sirdar not infrequently travels in a motor vehicle without the presence of a Police Officer, by employing various tricks.

3. In October last two of his small daughters were suffering from enteric. The Sirdar flatly refused to send them to hospital and demanded treatment and nursing in his house. This had to be arranged. Several members of the Sirdar's family have been attended by the Doctor for one indisposition or other.

4. The Doctor suggests that a complete change from these hills would be conducive to restoring the ailing members of the family to their normal conditions. The total cost of this medical attendance amounts to Rs.1,349-0-0.

5. The debts incurred by the Sirdar in Burmah have been fully recovered. The last recovery (Rs.36-15-0) was made in November 1936. He is now drawing the full allowance of Rs.600/- subject to the deduction of income-tax.

Annual return of Afghan refugees.

Sir,

With reference to your letter, No.P.126-A, dated the 6th August 1937, I am directed to explain that there are two kinds of Afghan refugees in India, namely:-

(i) Afghan refugees under executive restrictions only, and

(ii) Afghan refugees detained under Regulation III of 1818.

For the purposes of the annual return in question, the term "Afghan refugees" applies to refugees in both the categories. Although there are no Afghan refugees in the Bombay Presidency under category (i) above, there are 6 refugees under category (ii) residing in Satara and Begaum; vide correspondence ending with the letter from the Bombay Govt., No.64/34-A, dated the 5th July 1937. In the circumstances, I am to request that an ~~annual~~ return

There are two kinds of Afghan refugees in India, namely
(i) Afghan refugees under executive restrictions only,
and
(ii) Afghan refugees detained under Regulation III of 1818.
While there are no Afghan refugees of the first category in Bombay, there are six Koh-i-Daman refugees of the second category still residing in that Presidency as per details below:-
Khan Baba
Muhammad Ibrahim
Muhammad Hassan
Belgaum.
Muhammad Ismail
Taj Muhammad
Ali Ahmad.
Satara.
For the purposes of the annual return in question, the term "Afghan refugees" covers Afghan refugees in either category, and although the Sind Govt. have submitted a separate return for the refugees in their province, the Bombay Govt. are still required to submit a return in wakrespect of the 6 Koh-i-Daman refugees residing in their jurisdiction. We may reply to the Bombay Govt. as in the draf submitted for approval.

Column 11 of the statement.
The Sirdar's own health is satisfactory except that he had an attack of influenza at the end of December 1936, from which he has now recovered.
2. His conduct has not been satisfactory.
On the 5th July 1936,
He refused to return to Coonoor.
the Sirdar left Coonoor without permission and took up his quarters in the Juma mosque at Ootacamund.
The Joint Magistrate, Coonoor tried to persuade him to return but in vain. Accordingly the Joint Magistrate had the Sirdar removed to Coonoor by service of a warrant of arrest on the 9th July 1936.
Sirdar's object in coming to Ootacamund was to enlist local sympathy for his alleged grievances. His visit caused little public interest.

The
As a result of this escapade I have been compelled to tighten up the control over him. In spite of orders to the contrary the Sirdar not infrequently travels in a motor vehicle without the presence of a Police Officer, by employing various tricks.
3. In October last two of his small daughters were suffering from enteric. The Sirdar flatly refused to send them to hospital and demanded treatment and nursing in his house. This had to be arranged. Several members of the Sirdar's family have been attended by the Doctor for one indisposition or other.
4. The Doctor suggests that a complete change from these hills would be conducive to restoring the ailing members of the family to their normal conditions. The total cost of this medical attendance amounts to Rs.1,349-0-0.

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Bombay, Political and Reforms Department.
Subject.
Annual return of Afghan refugees.
Sir,
With reference to your letter,
No. P. 126-A, dated the 6th August 1937,
I am directed to explain that there are two kinds of Afghan refugees in India, namely:-
(i) Afghan refugees under executive restrictions only, and
(ii) Afghan refugees detained under Regulation III of 1818.
For the purposes of the annual return
in question, the term "Afghan refugees" applies to refugees in both the categories. Although there are no Afghan refugees in the Bombay Presidency under category (i) above, there are 6 refugees under category (ii)

residing in Satara and Begaum; vide
