The Madras Govt. have not yet submitted their return, because they have had no instructions on the subject owing to the absence of any Afghan refugees in the past in the Madras Presidency. There are however 4 Afghan refugees (detenus) there, now namely Sardars (i) Abdur Rahman Khan, (ii) Ghausuddin Khan, (iii) Abdul Hakim Khan and (iv) Amin Jan. (i) and (ii)-(iv) were transferred from Burma to Madras in November, 1934 and October 1935 respectively. Nos. (ii)-(iv) have been shown in the Burma return for the year 1935, but not No. (i), as he had left Burma for Madras in 1934. To complete our returns, we may now address the Madras Govt. as in the draft submitted

On re-examination, it appears that although Afghan refugees are now residing in Punj, Assam & Bihar, no returns have been received from those provinces, because they do not appear to have been addressed in the matter in the past. We have now addressed them on the lines of our Communication to Madras at Tab: (9), draft. Enclosed. There are Afghan refugees in Sind also, but they have on this occasion been shown in the Bombay return. There are no refugees in Orissa. A clear draft above will be taken after mine of the 26.8.36.
