I do not think that the deserters from the Khost reg.t should have been allowed to visit Ayub. But perhaps we need say nothing on the subject.

It is better they shd come openly than secretly.. ? 21/2/02

Confidential diary of the Political Agent with Sardar Ayub Khan for the period 23 - 31 January 1902.

Encl. 1,
Fo. No. 349

I extract the following from the diary of the Attaché.

27. 1. 02 I went to see the Sardar at 3.30 P.m., the time fixed by him to see me. He was inside his harem and sent a word to say that he was ill and unable to see me. A letter was then addressed to the Sardar by the Political Agent offering him medical assistance. He wrote back to say that he was not seriously ill and did not require any.

On the receipt of the Political Agent's letter Sardar Fateh Muhammad Khan was sent for. He wrote the Sardar's reply and perhaps also signed it for the Sardar as the signature is very doubtful.

All necessary precautions were taken

28. 1. 02 The Sardar came out at 10 a.m. and

NATIONAL ARCHIVES OF INDIA

37

(39)

I saw him at 11 a.m. He said that he suffered yesterday from headache, but that he was much better today.

29.1.02

I saw the Sardar. Hashim and some Afghan Mullas were present and they talked about religious matters. Ayub and Hashim praised Mulla Hadda and said that he was a true disciple of the late Akhund of Swat.

Please see D.O. No. 6 of C.S.B. Pro. No. 82 about Ayub correspondence with the Amir Mullah 1/2/02.

They (Ayub and Hashim) in the course of conversation said - "We hear that Amir Habibullah and Sardar Muhammad Umar Khan's mother are not on good terms".

The Lamab and General Taj Muhammad Khan say that Hashim is trying to influence Ayub for his personal advantage and telling him that if he (Ayub) lets the present opportunity pass, he would hardly get another. Hashim knows that if Ayub ever goes to Afghanistan Effendi, his eldest son (son-in-law to Hashim) will be heir apparent to Ayub.

// I extract the following from the diary of the Attache: -

10-2-02 I saw the Sardar. He said - "I hear some 41 soldiers with their Major have arrived here from the Khost country. They belonged to the Regiment which rebelled some time ago and killed their Colonel who was a very hard and strict officer. They are all Kohistanis."

11-2-02 // I saw the Sardar. He said - "It is reported in the Pioneer of yesterday's date that Habibulla Khan has released from prison and appointed Mir Ata Khan Sipahsalar of Afghanistan. He is my man. He is a Barakzai from the Herat province. He was a Khawanin Sawar of 20 Sawars under my brother, the Ex-Amir. I gave him one hundred Sawars and a Bairak (flag) and later appointed"

NATIONAL ARCHIVES OF INDIA

"him Brigadier. He was present at Maiwand. When I went to Persia, he submitted to Amir Abdul Rahman Khan who eventually appointed him Naik Sepahsalar and posted him at Asman. There he became licentious and spoiled some Kafiri women. The Amir then imprisoned him. He is a man of fair qualifications. His late father was and he himself is most hospitable. His father possessed a very large area of land yielding an abundance of grain which he used to give to the poor and in one great famine in the Herat province he fed thousands of people and thus made himself most popular."

// I saw the Sardar this morning. He said - 12-2-02

" The afghan Soldiers with their Major came to see me yesterday afternoon. They say that when they entered British territory their Arms and uniforms were taken away, but the British officers gave them food and paid the expenses of their journey to Rawalpindi. They are in great distress and dont know where to go and how to live. When their comrades"

NATIONAL ARCHIVES OF INDIA

"saw that they would be deprived of their Arms, they dispersed and have gone to various places in the hills along the Afghan border. I am unable to give them any help, but I pity them."

14.2.02 The Sardar says that he will go tomorrow to see a 'Fakir' living at a village some 12 or 13 miles from Pindi

Arrangements have been made to watch the Sardar secretly while he is out.

15-2-02 I saw the Sardar. He said that he would go tomorrow to the village Chara, 15 miles from Pindi E the East, for a day - leaving in the morning and returning in the evening.

The Political agent has given certain instructions to the Police Inspector and all necessary precautions will be taken.

Note by P.A. I have given the Deputy Commissioner of Rawal Pindi all the information I have about the men of the Regiment in Khost who mutinied and killed their Commanding Officer. They are apparently confessed murderers. I do not know what are the Rules or customs about extradition between British India and Afghanistan, but I learn from the Deputy Commissioner that he has brought the matter to the notice of superior authority.

The Sardar has returned from his trip to the village of Chara. He was accompanied by Sardars Sher Muhammad Khan, Fateh Muhammad Khan and about 16 other afghans. All the party were mounted. On reaching the village, Ayub Khan gave the Fakir Rs 60/- and some sweets and asked him to make a prayer for his (Ayub's) accession to the throne of Kabul. The prayer was accordingly made and the party then returned home. They were very satisfactorily shadowed throughout the day and were totally unaware of the fact.

Confidential diary of the Political officer with Sardar Ayub Khan for the period from 23rd February to the 7th March 1902.

I extract the following from the Native Assistants diary: —

27-2-02 I saw the Sardar. He talked lengthily about the Afghan affairs

He reports that one Mahmud Khan younger brother of the late General Fakir Ahmad Khan has escaped from the Kabul jail and arrived here. He states — "Habibulla Khan has appointed his own brother Sardar Nasrulla Khan his Sepahsalar, and put Sardar Muhammad Umar Khan at the head of the Revenue department. This has displeased Umar Khan's mother and she has withdrawn her son from his new office saying that he should be appointed Sepahsalar. So there is now increasing ill-feelings between the two factions and Sardar Amin Muhammad Khan sides with Sardar Muhammad Umar Khan's mother. Peace is being disturbed and the roads in the vicinity of the city of Kabul are not safe. Very likely the troops will rebel before long and the descendants of "

"the late Amir will fight amongst themselves. Habibulla Khan has sent messages to the troops stationed on the Indo-afghan border and the leading men in Tirah and Khyber to keep themselves ready for 'Jihad' against the English next Spring. It is simply a dodge to keep the troops quiet and turn their attention bother things. Habibulla says he will stop the English from extending their railways towards Kurram".

Note This man has come viâ Kurram. He is a man of no influence, but his late brother was.

Sardar further said - "Some of the afghan sepoys who had gone to Kalka have returned to Rawalpindi, as they could not get work there. They are now in great distress. They want me to do some thing for them. If Government have no objection, several of my followers are willing to keep these men in their service. If they object to their stay in Kabul, I would recommend that Government may take them in military service. Please speak this to the Political agent and let me have his reply. 7.3.02

I extract the following from the Native Assistants' diary:—

9.3.02 I saw the Sardar. He said—"I have allowed my followers to take in their service the sepoys of the Khost Regiment, and if any of them leave Kudi I shall inform the Political Officer.

11.3.02 I saw the Sardar. With regard to the rumours that Amir Habibulla Khan is arranging to effect an early "Jihad" the Sardar remarked—"If Habibulla proclaims "Jihad" against the English, I can not help Government against the "Ghazis."

The Sardar further said—"I hear that Habibulla has distributed arms to the people of Jalalabad through Mulla Hadda"

NATIONAL ARCHIVES OF INDIA

81 (83)

But the Indaris and some other tribes residing towards Kandahar have refused to receive arms on account of the strictness of the terms under which the arms are given, i.e. a person losing a rifle has to pay Rs 400/- to the Amir."

The Sardar further said - "I have, on reconsidering the matter, asked my followers not to take in their service the men of the Khost Regiment, but let them work elsewhere to earn their bread. So I am not responsible for them".

It is said that Sardar Hashim Khan will return to Kashmir by the end of the current month.
