In continuation of correspondence ending with your No. 373, dated 16th June last, I have the honour to forward in original for the orders of Government a petition (with translation) from Sardar Nazar Muhammad Khan, a Kabuli refugee, praying that as he is now alone and an old man with no one to attend to him his place of residence may be changed to Karachi, and that his pension may be made payable at that place also.

2. As the applicant is now old and feeble and there seems no objection to granting his request, I recommend that it be sanctioned.
