SIRDAR MUHAMMAD ALAM KHAN'S DEPARTURE TO HERAT.

[DEMI-OFFICIAL.]

Dated Simla, 7th May 1881.

From—LIEUT.-COL. J. W. RIDGEWAY,

To—J. G. CORDERY, Esq.

I ENCLOSE a letter to the address of His Highness the Amir, and shall be obliged if you will cause it to be sent on to Kabul as expeditiously as possible.

SECRETARY.

THERE is a good deal of truth in the Amir's remarks, I think. As to Alam Khan, I expected something much stronger. The clerical mistake is curious, but I imagine no play on the word was meant. If it was meant, it was rather good—"fitna angezi" being so very common an expression.

JUST arrived. Alam Khan starts to-morrow.

No. 129.

Dated Simla, 6th May 1881.

From—A. C. LYALL, Esq., C.B., Secy. to the Government of India, Foreign Dept.,

To—HIS HIGHNESS AMIR ABDUL RAHMAN KHAN, Amir of Afghanistan and its Dependencies.

After compliments.—I write to inform Your Highness, by desire of His Excellency the Viceroy, that Sirdar Muhammad Alam Khan, whom Your Highness knows well, left Simla yesterday on his way to Afghanistan. The Sirdar has for some months been living in India as the honoured guest of the British Government, but he has now intimated his desire to return to his own country, and has shown me a letter from Sirdar Shamsudin Khan, one of Your Highness' Governors, inviting him to Kandahar. He has also shown me a letter from his son, Sirdar Rahim Khan, enclosing one from Your Highness, and urging him to join his family.

Under these circumstances, His Excellency the Viceroy is assured that Your Highness regards the Sirdar as a friend, and there is therefore no reason to detain him in India against his will. He has accordingly been provided with letters showing that he is trusted and esteemed by the British Government and that he leaves India with the full knowledge and consent of His Excellency the Viceroy. It is hoped that his presence in Afghanistan may be beneficial to Your Highness' interests and an additional source of strength to Your Highness' Government.

I beg to express, &c.

No. 129A.

[Without date.]

From—A. C. LYALL, Esq., C.B., Secy. to the Government of India, Foreign Dept.,

To—SIRDAR MUHAMMAD ALAM KHAN.

SIRDAR MUHAMMAD ALAM KHAN has for many years been known as a tried and trustworthy friend of the British Government, and rendered excellent and valuable services to this Government during the recent occupation of Kabul by British troops. He afterwards returned to India in 1880, and has since resided in India as an honoured guest of the Government.

Sirdar Alam Khan now desires to return to Afghanistan and to rejoin his family. The Government of India are confident that, after his return to his own country, he will continue to use all his influence and personal authority with the Sirdars and people for the benefit of the two Governments, and for the restoration of peace and a settled Government in Afghanistan, and that whatever counsel towards these objects he may give will be wise and prudent. This paper is therefore given to him to attest that he leaves India and goes to Afghanistan with the full consent and approbation of the Government, after taking his leave of the Viceroy. Whenever it pleases the Sirdar to return to India he may be sure of an honourable and hospitable reception from the Government.

SIRDAR MUHAMMAD ALAM KHAN is anxious to start at once. Requires the following to enable him to proceed on his journey,—37 horses, 12 mules or ponies, 16 camels, fire-arms for 37 men. Precedence.—Your telegram 19th. We promised Sirdar Alam Khan all reasonable facilities and ordinary expenses of journey from Quetta, but no such heavy charges as those estimated in your telegram were anticipated. We supposed about Rs. 5,000 could suffice. Moreover, it is essential that Sirdar's journey should be treated as quite private, and we could not possibly provide him with arms and general outfit upon a scale that might create false impression of his being deputed by Government, which would give umbrage and might cause serious misconception in two opposite quarters. Please explain to Sirdar, settle what is really proper and necessary, and do your best to send him on quietly and speedily.

After compliments.—I have received five friendly letters from you in succession, and have acquainted myself with their contents. I am now going to acknowledge the receipt of your sublime letters, and to reply to each of them briefly. * * * * * *

Your third letter, dated the 10th June 1881, is a reply to that of mine, in which I enclosed a letter from Muhammad Ayub Khan to the address of Dost Muhammad Khan, Ghilzai. In reply to that letter you write that "those who have acted otherwise will not be able to hinder the complete establishment of Your Highness' authority in the district of Pusht-i-Rud." From this I conclude that you are really pleased and satisfied. But tumult and commotion in Afghanistan are, to a great extent, due to the Sirdars of my family. All the tribal Chiefs and the people are pleased and satisfied with my government, and eagerly wish its continuance. One of the strongest proofs of the Sirdars having a seditious disposition is to be found in the conduct of Sirdar Muhammad Alam Khan, who, having come from India to Shalkot (Quetta), started with horses and property for Herat. My disposition to show kindness to my kinsmen prompted me to accord him permission to enter Kandahar; but his rebellious nature* instigated him to betake himself to Herat. I have a friendly complaint (grudge) against Colonel St. John, who arranged and put to rights his (the Sirdar's) affairs, and left him without restraint so that he might proceed to Herat. Notwithstanding all this, I have such trust and confidence in the Divine favour, that the Heratis and his partizans will not have the power and ability to oppose my troops.

* The word in the original is "fitna Angrezi" (the English, sedition or rebellion). But this appears to be a slip of the pen, and to stand for "fitna angezai" (rebellious nature or turn of mind).

LIEUT.-COL. J. W. RIDGEWAY,
To J. G. CORDERY, Esq.
I ENCLOSE a letter to the address of His Highness the Amir, and shall be obliged if you will cause it to be sent on to Kabul as expeditiously as possible.

SECRETARY.
THERE is a good deal of truth in the Amir's remarks, I think. As to Alam Khan, I expected something much stronger. The clerical mistake is curious, but I imagine no play on the word was meant. If it was meant, it was rather good-" fitna angezi" being so very common an expression.

JUST arrived. Alam Khan starts to-morrow.

No. 129.

Dated Simla, 6th May 1881.

From A. C. LYALL, Esq., C.B., Secy. to the Government of India, Foreign Dept.,

To-HIS HIGHNESS AMIR ABDUL RAHMAN KHAN, Amir of Afghanistan and its Dependencies.

After compliments.-I write to inform Your Highness, by desire of His Excellency the Viceroy, that Sirdar Muhammad Alam Khan, whom Your Highness knows well, left Simla yesterday on his way to Afghanistan. The Sirdar has for some months been living in India as the honoured guest of the British Government, but he has now intimated his desire to return to his own country, and has shown me a letter from Sirdar Shamsudin Khan, one of Your Highness' Governors, inviting him to Kandahar. He has also shown me a letter from his son, Sirdar Rahim Khan, enclosing one from Your Highness, and urging him to join his family.

Under these circumstances, His Excellency the Viceroy is assured that Your Highness regards the Sirdar as a friend, and there is therefore no reason to detain him in India against his will. He has accordingly been provided with letters showing that he is trusted and esteemed by the British Government and that he leaves India with the full knowledge and consent of His Excellency the Viceroy. It is hoped that his presence in Afghanistan may be beneficial to Your Highness' interests and an additional source of strength to Your Highness' Government.

I beg to express, &c.

No. 129A.

[Without date.]

From A. C. LYALL, Esq., C.B., Secy. to the Government of India, Foreign Dept.,

To-SIRDAR MUHAMMAD ALAM KHAN.

SIRDAR MUHAMMAD ALAM KHAN has for many years been known as a tried and trustworthy friend of the British Government, and rendered excellent and valuable services to this Government during the recent occupation of Kabul by British troops. He afterwards returned to India in 1880, and has since resided in India as an honoured guest of the Government.

Sirdar Alam Khan now desires to return to Afghanistan and to rejoin his family. The Government of India are confident that, after his return to his own country, he will continue to use all his influence and personal authority with the Sirdars and people for the benefit of the two Governments, and for the restoration of peace and a settled Government in Afghanistan, and that whatever counsel towards these objects he may give will be wise and prudent. This paper is therefore given to him to attest that he leaves India and goes to Afghanistan with the full consent and approbation of the Government, after taking his leave of the Viceroy. Whenever it pleases the Sirdar to return to India he may be sure of an honourable and hospitable reception from the Govern-ment.

JENNINGS telegraphs from Jacobabad that Mr. Christie has wired him from Amritsar to take immediate arrangements for journey of Sirdar Alam Khan and others to Quetta. Is this done with your sanction, and is there any extreme urgency until all troops have passed down? It will be very difficult to carry out instructions sent by Christie to Jennings in your name.

From-COLONEL ST. JOHN, Quetta,
To-Foreign, Simla.
SIRDAR MUHAMMAD ALAM KHAN is anxious to start at once. Requires the following to enable him to proceed on his journey,-37 horses, 12 mules or ponies, 16 camels, fire-arms for 37 men. He states that he mentioned these requirements before leaving India, and was informed that all his wants would be supplied at Quetta, including cost for journey. I estimate expense of fitting his party out at Rs. 20,000.

Precedence.-Your telegram 19th. We promised Sirdar Alam Khan all reasonable facilities and ordinary expenses of journey from Quetta, but no such heavy charges as those estimated in your telegram were anticipated. We supposed about Rs. 5,000 could suffice. Moreover, it is essential that Sirdar's journey should be treated as quite private, and we could not possibly provide him with arms and general outfit upon a scale that might create false impression of his being deputed by Government, which would give umbrage and might cause serious misconception in two opposite quarters. Please explain to Sirdar, settle what is really proper and necessary, and do your best to send him on quietly and speedily.

Extract from a Telegram from Commissioner, Peshawar, to Foreign Secretary, dated 24th

HE (the Amir) agrees to Muhammad Alam Khan being sent to Kandahar on condition of his loyalty.
No. 142.
Translation of a letter from the Amir of Kabul, to the address of the Secretary, dated 30th June 1881.

After compliments.-I have received five friendly letters from you in succession, and have acquainted myself with their contents. I am now going to acknowledge the receipt of your sublime letters, and to reply to each of them briefly.

(4)
*
*
Your third letter, dated the 10th June 1881, is a reply to that of mine, in which I enclosed a letter from Muhammad Ayub Khan to the address of Dost Muhammad Khan, Ghilzai. In reply to that letter you write that "those who have acted otherwise will not be able to hinder the complete establishment of Your Highness' authority in the district of Pusht-i-Rud." From this I conclude that you are really pleased and satisfied. But tumult and commotion in Afghanistan are, to a great extent, due to the Sirdars of my family. All the tribal Chiefs and the people are pleased and satisfied with my government, and eagerly wish its continuance. One of the strongest proofs of the Sirdars having a seditious disposition is to be found in the conduct of Sirdar Muhammad Alam Khan, who, having come from India to Shalkot (Quetta), started with horses and property for Herat. My disposition to show kindness to my kinsmen prompted me to accord him permission to enter Kandahar; but his rebellious nature* instigated him to betake himself to Herat. I have a friendly complaint (grudge) against Colonel St. John, who arranged and put to rights his (the Sirdar's) affairs, and left him without restraint so that he might proceed to Herat. Notwithstanding all this, I have such trust and confidence in the Divine favour, that the Heratis and his partizans will not have the power and ability to oppose my troops.
* The word in the original is "fitna Angrezi" (the English, sedition or rebellion). But this appears to be a slip of the pen, and to stand for "fitna angezai" (rebellious nature or turn of mind).
