2. 10. 97. The Resident in Kashmir visited Sardar Ajib Khan.

5. 10. 97. Sardar Ajib Khan's favourite son Akram Jan (age 6 or 7 years) went out with an afghan servant and 2 Kashmiri boatmen to a place near Srinagar, named Nagina Bagh. He took with him a small gun with which he intended to shoot birds. While they were looking for birds "a naked madman" (so writes Mr: Allah Baksh) rushed at the afghan and the Kashmiris and struck them with a stick; at this moment Akram Jan's gun "went off accidentally" and the madman was shot and has died of the injuries received. The matter is being inquired into by the Kashmir Police, and I shall no doubt hear from the Resident on the subject. At present I have only heard of the accident from Mr: Allah Bakhsh.

Sardár Ayub Khán, accompanied by Sardár Fateh Mahomed Khán, Mr: Allah Bakhsh, and a few Afghán followers left Srinagar for a 10 day's shooting trip to Wangat. 10. 10. 97.

The Sardár asked Mr: Allah Bakhsh to report to me that he (the Sardár) would return to Srinagar about 20th October, and start off his ladies and baggage for Ráwalpindi, after which he would again go out shooting and probably not start for Ráwalpindi till the end of November. 11. 10. 97.
