Diary of the Political Agent in charge of Sardár Ajúb Khán, for the period 1–15 April 1896.

2-4-96. The Political Agent visited the Sardár who said he hoped to start for Murree about the 15th instant. The Sardár was in very good spirits & said he wanted to call on Rája Amar Singh when he passed through on his way up to Kashmir.

4-4-96. The Political Agent went to Murree.

7-4-96. The Political Agent inspected Sardár Ajúb Khán's house & found the workmen still at work upon it.

14-4-96. There has been rain at Murree and Rawalpindi, and the Sardar will probably postpone his departure for a while as his ladies do not like Murree. The Sardár went out for a day's quail shooting.

Diary of the Political Agent in charge of Sardár Ayúb Khán, for the period 16-30 April 1896.

16.4.1896. Sardár Amir Muhd Khán has returned from Delhi (vide diary for 2 3rd March 96) bringing Rs 5,000 worth of ornaments and clothes, which are to be given to the daughter of Sardár Hashim Khán when she is formally betrothed to Sardár Ayúb Khán's eldest son. It is believed that the ceremony will take place during the month of Mohurram i.e. June-July next.

17.4.1896. The Sardár went out grail shooting.

20.4.1896. The Sardár accompanied by Mr Allah Bakhsh went to say good bye to the departing deputy Commissioner Mr Beckett. On his return he sent Miss Beckett a small silver (Indian) tea pot worth about Rs 60/- He said he sent this gift to Miss Beckett because Mr Beckett gave him a Japanese cigarette case when he returned from Japán some time ago.

The Sardár had intended coming up to Murrée by 15th inst, but the operation of circumcision performed on his 8 sons on 26th March last, appears to have been very badly done by the Native Doctor (private practitioner) called in by the Sardár. The boys suffered much pain and twice subsequently have had to submit to operations. The boys are now just getting well & the Sardár hopes to be able to leave Pindi by 7th May. In the case of Akram Jan, the Sardár's favourite son, the operation was so badly done that it will all have to be done again when he reaches Murrée.
