Letter from the Punjab Govt.

No. 10239. Pol.

Dated the 1st April 1921.

Recd. the 4th April 1921.

Recommends that Sardar Nazar Mohammad Khan, who has been granted permission by the Amir to return to Afghanistan may be allowed to do so, and that an advance of Rs 1000/- be sanctioned for his way expenses.

Please see prepage. There is no objection now to permission being given to Sardar Nazar Mohammad Khan, a follower of the late Sardar Ayub Khan, to return to Afghanistan.

The Sardar is in receipt of an allowance of Rs 200/- p.m. The Afghan Envoy asked that the Sardar may be granted a lump sum equal to his twelve months' allowance before his departure, but the Punjab Govt. recommend an advance of Rs 1000/- on the usual condition that from the date of payment of the
