Reference your Memo No. 44 F, dated the 21st February 1917, regarding the proposed visits of the Afghan refugees of the Lahore Agency to various hill stations during the summer.

Sardar Fateh Muhammad Khan, who was one of those who were refused permission to visit Kashmir, was eventually allowed to spend the summer at Samli, in Murree.

His wife was in a precarious state of health when at Lahore and became worse at Samli.

The Sardar has written to say that the lady having become hopeless of her life desired that after her death her body should be carried to Kashmir and buried by the side of her mother's tomb. The Sardar added that on hearing this her nephew, Lieutenant Sardar Abdur Rahman Khan Effendi, of the 5th Cavalry, son of the late Sardar Hashim Khan, arrived from Kashmir and thinking that it would be difficult to take the lady's body to Kashmir took her away with him in his motor.

NATIONAL ARCHIVES OF INDIA

Sardar Fateh Muhammad Khan requests that in consideration of these circumstances he may be granted permission to go to Kashmir with one servant for two months to attend to his sick wife and if she dies to take part in her funeral ceremonies.

The Sardar is the most reasonable and well behaved among the Afghan refugees in Lahore and has never given trouble.

Recommended that if there be no objection his request may be granted as a special case.
