I write to say that on 19/1/30 the second son of H.H. the Mehtar of Chitral was married to one of the daughters of Sardar Muhammad Yusuf Khan, the nephew and son-in-law of the ex-Amir Yaqub Khan. The Mehtar has or had a son in the Military College here last year, but I believe there was also a brother in Dehra, so cannot say without further inquiry whether it is the former who has now left the College for family life. The happy pair and party are leaving for Chitral tonight, and a son of the Sardar's named Sher Ahmad will accompany his sister as far as Peshawar, and a servant Khan Mohammad, who gets an allowance of Rs.15 p.m. will go with them right up to Chitral and stay two or three months; Sher Ahmad will return to Dehra on 27th.

To the best of my knowledge the daughters of Mohammad Yusuf Khan are immoral to a degree, which may possibly account in part for his popularity with the Rulers of various Native States. I first heard last year that a son of the Mehtar's was after one of them and mentioned it, I think, to the Political Officer who was here with H.H. on a visit; to the best of my recollection he told me either that H.H. knew all about it, or that it did not matter.

Dear Jagdish Prasad,

In continuation of my d.o.dated 21-1-30, reporting the marriage of a son of the Mehtar of Chitral to one of the daughters of Sardar Mohammad Yusuf Khan, I write to say that this is not the son who was in the Military College but his brother, a youth who took his B.A. degree from Aligarh last year and is said to be now working as Private Secretary to H.H.

Yours sincerely,
Sd.P.Mason.
